- D. President's Report, Cheryl Nygaard. No report.
- E. Vice President's Report, Julie Rossman. No report.
- F. Past President's Report, Gary Thramer. Gary was not present.
- G. Treasurer's Report, Matthew Camrud. He presented the final 2008-2009 financial report and the March balance sheet. See attached. We have approximately 400 members against a goal of 700.
- H. Standing Committee Reports.
 - a. Membership, Sandi Tampa. Sandi was not present.
 - b. City of Bellevue Neighborhood Liaison. Rich Dolleman. Rick announced a walkway and bikeway project from 126th Avenue SE to 128th Avenue SE. This project will be completed by the end of the year. See attached.
 - c. Newsletter, Cheryl Nygaard. Cheryl announced that Barbara Lee, the newsletter editor, is taking a leave of absence from the newsletter due to health issues. Anyone interested in helping out should contact her.
 - d. Spring Egg Hunt, Julie Rossman. The event was very successful and the turn out was great, even in the rain. The new location worked well and Julie asked for feedback on the event given it was her first time organizing it.
 - e. Fourth of July Picnic, Lisa Viereck. Plans for the event are moving forward. Matthew Camrud expressed concern about the budget for the event and urged that the planners keep this in mind.
 - f. Car Show, Gary Thramer. Gary was not present. Gary is moving out of the area so a volunteer is needed in order for this to continue.
 - g. Website, Grace Whiteaker. Grace was not present.
 - h. Public Safety, Debra Haraldson. No report.
 - i. Government Liaison, Ray Osburn. Ray was not present.
 - j. Land use and Community Appearance—a volunteer is needed.
 - k. Merchant Liaison—a volunteer is needed.
- I. Special Committee: The Newport Hills Task Force, headed by Mary Truscott. Mary is looking for a co chair to assist her. It has been suggested that someone from NH attend the City Council meetings. We could get three or four volunteers who could rotate attendance. She needs ideas on how we could use the commercial space at the shopping center in the mean time. Permission from the owner and the city would have to be secured and Mary is willing to work on this.
- J. Announcements. The next meeting will be on May 19.
